

MAYOR DISMISSES ASSAULT CHARGE AGAINST STRIKERS

National Sanitary Employee Attacked While On Way To Work.

CLAIMS TESTIMONY IS NOT SUFFICIENT

Hirsch Identifies Accused As Man Who Struck Him With Instrument.

Before a crowded court room in Mayor John W. Post's court the case of the state of Ohio versus Charles Black, charged with assault and battery and Joseph Zender, charged with assault on Herman Hirsch, employee of the National Sanitary Co., Saturday morning as he was enroute to work, was heard at 10 a. m. Monday.

Both men were discharged by Mayor Post who stated on taking this action that the testimony at the trial was not sufficient to convict the men. He reserved his decision until 1:30 p. m.

Conflicting testimony in reduced alleged that the assault was committed without witnesses, but also developed the fact that a previous assault had been attempted Saturday morning on another employee at that plant.

Hirsch positively identified Black as his assailant but did not see Zender until after the assault was committed, according to his testimony. Alva Holmes, testifying in behalf of the defendants, stated that he and Zender were on picket duty Saturday morning. They were scattered about the plant, and he said he did not see the assault committed. The defendants had no other witnesses.

Hirsch on Stand
Testimony as to the time of the assault, was given by three witnesses for the state, Philip Leder, Dan Conja and a Mr. Hilliard. Their testimony, while not of vital importance was in reduced to show that the plant was picketed the morning of the assault, and that the assault occurred shortly before 7 a. m.

In his story Hirsch told that Black assaulted him, hitting him over the head with a blunt instrument requiring three stitches to close the cut. He said he recognized Black and as an ran away from Black after the assault he saw Zender but did not see Holmes.

The three witnesses of the National Sanitary Co., were questioned by counsel for the defense in an effort to determine if it were light enough for Hirsch to recognize his assailants. Their answers varied considerably and nothing of importance was gained. Hilliard claimed that he was assaulted the same morning but escaped injury.

Says Army Is Below Public Safety Needs

Washington, Dec. 12.—The United States army is 50,000 below the minimum strength required for national safety, according to the declaration of the chief of staff in his annual report, made public today.

The "irreducible minimum" strength of the regular army, "consistent with public safety," the chief of staff asserted, "is 200,000, exclusive of Philippine scouts."

Forty thousand troops are necessary for overseas garrisons, including Porto Rico, Panama, Hawaii, the Philippines, Alaska and China, the chief of staff explained. This does not include the forces necessary for manning coast artillery defenses, estimated at 20,000, or twice the number provided under present plans for limiting the army to 150,000 men.

Since the United States is dependent in time of war on its citizen soldiery, the general staff lays particular emphasis on the necessity of adequate personnel for training the organized national reserves. The number of enlisted men necessary for this duty, the chief of staff places at 14,000.

The air service requires a minimum of 11,500 men, the chief of staff said. Pointing out that the World War found the United States particularly unprepared in special and technical units, the chief of staff insisted 10,000 men is the smallest allotment for this service consistent with public safety.

The chief of staff points out that 14,000 troops are necessary for foreign garrisons, special services, and the overcast of the army. In addition to these special troops he asserts, there must be at least 60,000 combat troops held in readiness in the United States for any emergency which may arise.

With a bid of $3.89 a ton the John Pascola Coal Co. was awarded the contract to supply the city with coal for six months. Five other bids were considered by the board of control in awarding the contract.

Leetonia Men Sentenced For Robbing Cars

Three Sentenced To State Reformatory, One To Penitentiary.

Lisbon, Dec. 12.—Four Leetonia prisoners charged with robbing box cars and stores entered pleas of guilty before Judge J. G. Moore today. Francis Martin, Italian, one of the gang, stated that he preferred to go to the penitentiary instead of the Mansfield reformatory and gave his age as 32, which fixed the penitentiary sentence. He was sent up for from two to 15 years.

Ramond Barnes and Patrick Cimminelli were given from two to 15 years in the reformatory and Carl Oliver, the youngest member of the gang, was sentenced to from one to seven years in the reformatory.

Martinas had tried out the reformatory and preferred the pen, he stated. He admitted that the gang had broken into five box cars and several stores. The trial of Joseph Nagle, also one of the gang, was postponed as he is in the hospital following an operation for appendicitis.

Frank Trine, who claims his home is in Washington, D. C., pleaded guilty to breaking a plate glass window and robbing the Harry Friskhorn hardware store in Wellsville and was sentenced to from one to 16 years at Mansfield.

John and Roy Easton, also charged with burglary at Wellsville, had announced their intention to plead guilty but changed their minds after being brought into court. Their trial will begin tomorrow.

The choir will give its Christmas song service Sunday evening, Dec. 18.

SURVEY REVEALS UNEMPLOYMENT IS INCREASING HERE

Students Find 31.8 Per Cent Of Workers In Salem Are Idle.

12 PER CENT HAVE "PART TIME" WORK

Survey Also Reveals That 2.5 Per Cent Have Been Idle A Year.

Although all the statistical work has not been completed in connection with the unemployment survey conducted by the economic classes of the Salem High school, preliminary tabulations show an increase of 4.4 per cent in unemployment in the last month.

About 2,000 households were visited where 2,573 workers were recorded. The average number of workers per house was 1.5. Very few vacant houses were noted, about one per cent.

As most of the above increase in unemployment can be credited to seasonal conditions it is not as significant as are the figures for the gross unemployment of the 2,573 workers. The reports showed that 31.8 per cent were affected by unemployment. If those who are employed part time be deducted from these, the part time is reduced to 19.9. Hence 69.2 per cent of those recorded, worked full time, 11.9 per cent part time, and the remainder, 19.9 per cent, are unemployed.

Analyzing again the numbers of the "part time" and the "no time" workers, it was found that they bore ratios to each other as 62.6 to 37.4 or in other words only about a third of the unemployed participated in the uncertainties of part time employment.

Further, of all workers 2.5 per cent reported unemployment of a year's standing or over.

The increase in unemployment of 4.4 per cent represents the increase in the last month and less. It also represents 12.9 per cent of those affected by unemployment and 22.2 per cent of those without work of any nature.

Other more specific facts are expected to be worked out from the data secured.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT CHARGE BRINGS FINE

Dennison denied his guilt.

Two arrests for intoxication were made by Salem police authorities over the week end. Both offenders were fined by Mayor Post.

Friends To Send Baskets To Needy On Christmas Day

The Bible school of the First Friends church will have its special Christmas service Friday evening, Dec. 23. A cantata entitled, "When the Saviour Came" will be given.

At the school session Sunday morning the relief committee announced 25 baskets would be furnished for needy families and that these would be distributed the day before Christmas. The names of the families receiving the baskets will be sent to Salem chapter, Red Cross, so that there will be no duplication.

This church went on record Sunday as favoring the petition being circulated by the W. C. T. U. relative to having the Bible in the public school.

Tuesday evening there will be a rehearsal of the Christmas cantata. The Junior Christian Endeavorers will meet after school Wednesday at the church.

Saturday afternoon the children having part on the Christmas program will meet at the church to practice.

Scholarship Fund Started By Big Class

Announcement Made When Loyal Women Observe Anniversary.

One hundred and twenty-one Loyal Women were present for Sunday school and communion service at the Christian church Sunday in observance of the tenth anniversary of the class. At the evening service a large number of the Loyal Women were present with the members of their families swelling the audience to the capacity of the great auditorium.

At this time Judge Lodge Riddle of the probate court at Lisbon, made the address. He spoke on "The Legal Trials of Paul," which proved to be of special interest as the story of Paul has been a favored subject for church school study for several weeks.

Announcement was made Sunday morning at church school assembly that the Loyal Women's class has promoted a scholarship fund and they have already placed $104 in that fund. All departments of the church will participate in the support of this fund and it is the hope that the Christian church may some time soon assist some one or some group of younger church workers with this money in taking up ministerial or social uplift training.

Miss Ethel Beck, now of Cleveland, was made custodian of the fund and it has been named for the pastor of the church, being known as the Miller scholarship fund.

The coming week will be a busy one for the members of the church as final rehearsals and arrangements for the Christmas entertainment to be held Thursday evening, Dec. 22, will be looked after and on Thursday all supplies will be transported to the church kitchen where baskets will be packed to be presented to the needy families.

FOREIGN DEBT FUNDING BILL IS EXPECTED TO CLEAR WAY FOR BONUS

Washington, Dec. 12.—The senate was set today for speedy action on the foreign debt funding bill, one of the major items in President Harding's program of legislation as announced in his speech at the opening of the session.

Senator McCumber, Republican, North Dakota, was to offer the bill immediately after the senate convened at noon and the party leaders were expected to press for quick action.

Little opposition was expected from the Democratic side as it is understood the Democratic members acquiesced in the committee derision.

Two major provisions for which the Democrats were pressing were incorporated in the report. One prevents a remission in any way of the principal or interest of the foreign debt. The other forbids exchange of the bonds of one government for those of another.

It was predicted by some senators that the passage of the foreign debt bill would clear the way for action on the soldier bill.

The total obligations of foreign governments to the United States under the Liberty bond act, is $3,434,969,000. Other forms of obligations including debts for the sale of surplus war materials brings the total to about $11,000,000,000.

Hays The Humanist

IN his annual report Postmaster General Hays has a chapter on his efforts to humanize the service. He does not claim originality for the general idea. "This humanizing business," he says, "has been the definite trend of American business for the past generation." Why it has not been attempted before in the postal service he does not know; "Uncle Sam must be just as good a boss as any private employer."

The get together spirit is particularly important in the postal service because the human factor is so important there. "Individual initiative and intelligence are called into play, whether it be in deciphering a badly written address, distributing mail, selling a postage stamp, following the trail of a lost registered letter, laying out a rural route or keeping up the nerve of a city's mail carriers under a deluge of Christmas mail."

On the postoffice job nothing can take the place of the individual. Mr. Hays, commenting on this, remarks that while in many great industries the human equation has been reduced to a minimum, "no one has yet invented anything to take the place of a man in the delivery of letters. Today, as a hundred years ago, we are dependent on the nerve and the sense of loyalty of a human being for the punctual delivery of our mail regardless of the weather and everything else."

Such are the reasons which have prompted the postmaster-general to show the men under him that they are not to be regarded, by themselves or others, as mere commodities who contribute nothing to the morale of the organization. The 326,000 men and women in the department are no longer merely employees; they are co-workers. Their spirit has changed for the better. The fault lay to a great extent with officials. Many of these, says Mr. Hays, had the notion that discipline and abjection meant the same thing. Such men had to learn that kindness, courtesy and consideration were the very foundation of good discipline.

Mr. Hays has gone further than the spreading of the gospel of the Golden Rule. He is a practical man and he had a welfare department organized before he was four months in office. Inspections are made to discover where postoffices are deficient in air, light, heat, water supply, recreation facilities, medical attention and luncheon service. Aid is to be given in the way of sickness benefits, special training, civil service examinations and social organizations. A postal national welfare council has been organized and in it are represented the nine large associations which have as members the carriers, clerks, railway mail men, rural delivery men, supervisory employees and laborers.

The postmaster-general finds that the public has responded well to his efforts to imbue the post service with the "thank you spirit." And, on the practical side, the public has helped the department by assisting in the early mailing campaign. In one postoffice, where 600,000 of the 700,000 daily letters were formerly mailed between 4 and 7 p. m., early mailing has permitted the transfer of 50 postal employees from night work to day work and has benefited other employees in one way or another. Of course the delivery of the mail was hastened. The public, helping others, helped itself.

Will Hays is scraping the moss from the postoffice department and in a way which pleases the public and the postoffice folk.

PUPILS OF BEECHWOOD SCHOOL GIVE CARNIVAL

Pupils of the Beechwood school staged a successful entertainment at the school Thursday and Friday evening when they held a carnival very similar to those conducted in the city schools, under the direction of the teacher, Charles Lease.

Vaudeville consisting of comedy and music was presented in a capable manner. Among some of the numbers were: Blinks and Jinks. Matilda La Mar & Co., and a musical act, "Better Music for Better Moods." Other humorous numbers were the dialogue, "Aunt Jane Visits School," and the Dr. Nevair Duzzitt Co. vaudeville performance. The Beechwood Jolly Five rendered pleasing vocal selections.

Following the vaudeville acts an up-to-date minstrel show held the attention of the audience which filled the building both nights. The students were warmly congratulated on the work they had done in getting up the carnival and on Saturday evening their teacher treated them at a party held at the school.

SALTS IF KIDNEYS OR BLADDER BOTHER

Harmless to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread. The water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

JIMMY JONES MATCHED AGAINST JACK PERRY IN YOUNGSTOWN ARENA

Has Jimmy Jones, the lad who has not lost a single newspaper decision in the past two years, reached the height of his fist career? That is the question that is giving his many Youngstown admirers plenty to worry over. True, Jones has engaged in many battles during that time, but it must also be admitted that he has met but few of the better boys in the welter division. Of all his opponents the names of Johnny Griffiths and Barney Adair stand out as the best and neither of this pair possesses the ability that marked them as top notchers a few years back. Jones will get the real test of his career the coming Thursday evening.

Perry while yet a youngster is a veteran of the fist game, having met Champion Jack Britton upon four different occasions, to say nothing of the many other first raters in the welterweight division that he has swapped punches with.

Dick Evans, another Youngstown lad who has been rapidly gaining distinction through his many wins, will exchange blows with Al Doty, the Canton kayo artist of over 400 ring battles. Scotty Raeburn, the Warren lad who held ex-champion Frankie Mason to even terms just a few weeks ago, will stack up against a tartar in Trixie Brennan, of Pittsburgh.

FORDS RUN 34 MILES ON GALLON GASOLINE.

Start Easy in Coldest Weather—Other Cars Show Proportionate Saving

A new carburetor which cuts down gasoline consumption of any motor and reduces gasoline bills from one-third to one-half is the proud achievement of the Air-Friction Carburetor Co., 1966 Madison street, Dayton, O. This remarkable invention not only increases the power of motors from 30 to 50 per cent, but enables every one to run slow on high gear. It also makes it easy to start a Ford or any other car in the coldest weather. You can use the very cheapest grade of gasoline or half gasoline and half kerosene and still get more power and more mileage than you now get from the highest test gasoline. All Ford owners can get as high as 34 miles to a gallon of gasoline. So sure are the manufacturers of the immense saving their new carburetor will make that they offer to send it on 30 days' trial to every car owner. As it can be put on or taken off in a few minutes by anyone all readers of this paper who want to try it should send their name, address and make of car to the manufacturers at once. They also want local agents, to whom they offer exceptionally large profits. Write them today.—Adv.

SULPHUR CLEARS A PIMPLY SKIN

Apply Sulphur as Told When Your Skin Breaks Out

Any breaking out of the skin on face, neck, arms or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthosulphur. The pimples seem to dry right up and go away, declares a noted skin specialist.

Nothing has ever been found to take the place of sulphur as a pimple remover. It is harmless and inexpensive. Just ask any druggist for a small jar of Menthosulphur and use it like cold cream.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Way's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Every body uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Horticulturists at the Ohio Experiment station report that through various systems of "bracing," fruit trees may be saved from destructive storms.

A common method of bracing wide-spreading branches of mature trees is to connect them with iron rods which are secured through the limbs with eyebolts. The rods are tied together in the center so that each limb braces the one opposite it.

With young trees which show a tendency to develop divided centers, braces may be made by intertwining living branches from each half. These caudexes after three or four years, forming a single, smooth limb having two places of origin.

Another form of bracing consists in supporting a lower overhanging limb to a more upright and stronger branch by inserting a vertical graft.

FEARS OF FRANCE BASED ON REASON

MEMBER OF DELEGATION TELLS WHY SHE FEELS GERMANY IS NOT TO BE TRUSTED.

TWO ACTS SHOWED INTENTION

Kaiser Took Advantage of French Reduction of Service Term in 1906, and Gained Undue Concessions in Conference of 1914.

By EDWARD B. CLARK
Washington.—When Aristide Briand spoke on disarmament of land forces he repeated what he had said on several occasions before, although of course his address in the conference was of greater length and in more detail than anything that had preceded.

It is France alone among the representatives of the nations here assembled who have given in advance consistently from the first their views on the great armament matters at stake.

Since the Briand speech, a Frenchman of high state standing has given to me an insight into the feelings of his people, and has explained why they cannot get over the habit of fear of encroachment from the East.

It was perhaps two acts of Germany more than any other which convinced the French that Germany was on aggression bent and that invasion was premeditated long in advance. It was in 1906, eight years before the great war began, that the French republic reduced the term of service for its men with the colors from three to two years. Germany took note of this, and after waiting sufficient time as it thought to take the edge off suspicion, increased its standing army by 100,000 men. The threat of this and its meaning instantly became clear to the French people, and they went back to the three year term of service.

France lost something in preparedness by reducing the time that her sons should serve with the colors. During the years from 1906 until the old service time was restored, there was an element in France which urged a return to the old-time conditions, for this element, watchful and alert, realized what the Germans finally intended to do.

When France yielded to Kaiser. The French statesman with whom I have been talking asked me how many Americans remember that in February, 1914, only five and a half months before the war began, Germany and France through accredited representatives of each nation met to decide certain matters of controversy over the Baghdad railroad and the general case of the Kaiser's ambitions southeastward. There was a meeting in Berlin and the Frenchman who presented a salient part of the case of France at that gathering is now in Washington. He has told me that the desire of the French, and their sole desire at that time, was to make concessions which would prevent friction, and which would give Germany no excuse for taking offense, or even pretending to take offense.

France yielded much at that conference and Germany was given a pretty free hand, so far as the republic was concerned, in affairs in the southeast. It probably was thought by the French at that time that if Germany were not crossed in this particular instance she might be satisfied. The Kaiser and his land gained things at that time which were of great advantage to them a few months later when they started the war that they always intended to start.

It will be noticed that inferentially the French couple the Russians with the Germans in their present day fears. This apprehension concerning Russia in the future, however, is not confined to France.

Fear Russo-German Alliance.

The French, like others, cannot determine what the future of Russia is to be. They fear an eventual alliance between the hordes of the country east of Germany and Germany itself. If anything of the kind should happen, and war should come, France again would be the bulwark of the western kind of democracy. The republic does not want to decrease its army below the point of safety.

There is, however, a feeling among the French that reduction in the navies and certain reductions in the armies shall make the masses of the German people, now inclined toward democracy, assert themselves to an extent that will make it certain no militaristic policies are being pursued in the future. France thus may be able to cut down her land forces, satisfied that lasting conditions of amity have come.

So far as the French condition today is concerned, the main thing seems to be that the people cannot be convinced yet that they will be safe unless they have the means of safety at quick command. It seems to be recognized officially in Washington that the French are not far wrong in their contentions. It is believed that both Great Britain and the United States are willing that France should keep enough men under arms to protect herself, for with France in the condition that she is today, the representatives of the other countries seemingly hold that with the expense of a land force greater than that necessary for her salvation in case trouble is forced upon her.

Philadelphia Man Gains Twenty Pounds and Never Felt Better in Life

"Three bottles of Tanlae have done more for me than all the other medicines I have taken put together," said William Bird, 1254 N. Main st., Philadelphia, Penn., designer of confectiary for Thomas Mills & Bros., Inc.

"Why, the medicine has actually built me up twenty pounds in weight and made a strong healthy man of me, or three years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble and could eat so little that it hardly gave me strength enough to keep going. Indigestion nearly tormented the life out of me and gas formed and pressed up against my heart until I was almost smothered at times. I had terrific headaches and dizzy spells and I lost so much weight and strength that I felt weak and worn out all the time. I was so nervous I would shake like one with the palsy, and my sleep was so restless I just dreaded to go to night come.

"Tanlae started helping me almost from the day I began taking it, and the medicine has put me in such fine health that I never felt better in my life than I do now. My appetite cannot be beat, and I never feel a sign of indigestion or stomach trouble. The nervousness, headaches and dizziness are entirely gone. I sleep like a top at night and am feeling fine right to my finger tips. Tanlae is the best medicine I ever heard of and I believe it will help whoever tries it."

Tanlae is sold in Salem by The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Bolger & French, Flooding's drug store and by all leading druggists.

JOIN IT TODAY-- "The Happiness Club"

President Harding started the Happiness Club idea when he ordered a florist to send his mother flowers once a week regularly.

Just think how many you can make happy with a floral remembrance regularly delivered to them. Some members use the rotating plan, so that flowers are sent to two or three different people once a week or once a month or at certain times picked out before hand.

Come in and talk it over with us. You will be surprised how much happiness you can furnish others for just a few dollars.

MANY DEALS PENDING AT MEETING OF MAJOR LEAGUES IN NEW YORK

New York—Though a quarter of million dollars will change hands as a result of player deals consummated at the Buffalo meeting of the National association, the magnates are not through reaching into the dough bag.

With the scene of action transferred to New York in prospect of the major league meetings this week, talk of further deals filled the air.

The New York Yankees have several deals in prospect, one of which is believed to be with Detroit. Rumor says that Bob Veatch and a pitcher, probably Howard Ehmke, may come to the Yanks for Johnny Mitchell, an out-fielder and some cash money.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago Cubs are both in the market for talent. Gibson and Killifer are casting about high and low for some deal that will strengthen their teams and hope to put over a deal or two before the end of next week.

"Players were never so scarce," said Killifer, discussing the problems that confront him. "Try and buy somebody, just try and do it."

The St. Louis Browns also have money to spend for pitching talent and could use a second baseman, but as Business Manager Quinn said at Buffalo: "We're not going to pay radium prices and I doubt if we could get the right men even though the sky was made the limit."

THEATRES

Lou Tellegen to Appear
It is doubtful if local theatergoers will have an opportunity this season to witness more true worth and real artistic merit than will be displayed at the Grand opera house Thursday, Dec. 15, the occasion being the engagement of that highest type of romantic actor, Lou Tellegen, who will present himself and his own company in his greatest American success, "Blind Youth," a comedy drama in three acts, which he wrote in collaboration with Willard Mack, and which has enjoyed long and successful runs in New York, Boston, and Chicago.

The famous star in engaging his supporting company for his transcontinental tour has surrounded himself with many well known players.

"Way Down East"

Interest is shown here in the return to the Park theater, for a week's stay of D. W. Griffith's "Way Down East." In this picture of the life of the people of New England there is embodied the life of the people of Ohio and in fact the replica of wholesome human existence all over the world is shown in faithful portrayal by Mr. Griffith in this new classic screen work. The picture is being shown all this week.

Louisville, Ky.—Federal agents are out searching for bandits who succeeded in getting away with 194 cases of bottled Bond and 10 barrels of whisky stolen from the T. B. Elly distillery.

London—A most remarkable bird is on display here at the poultry show. It crows, has spurs and tail like a cockerel, but lays eggs.

More About the Bible
Editor of The News:
A profiteering landlord told me once, if you can't harmonize with the big rent problem, build a house of your own. Don't this sound like last lines of a citizen of no particular faith? Despotism, Kaiser-like, un-American, he says, "If you can't bring yourself around with the thought of a Bible in the school, start one of your own." Would this citizen be pleased that he or she, or their children should be made to study the Jew's Bible or the Turk's Bible, or any other against their wishes? We are living in the good old U. S. A., the land of liberty. Our schools are a great melting pot, keep religion out of it. To subscribe, he is right, we all have Bibles. You say, "neglect the Bible ethics and we are running fast toward barbarism." It was told by a soldier of the last war that some good people distributed Bibles in camp and I know that some good people distributed bayonets also. Think of it, we need more humanity lessons, and brotherly love in this world. The good Lord will have mercy on our souls beyond.

CLOGGED BLOOD WITHERS THE BODY

Workers Sick and Weak from Exertion Take Gude's
Pepto-Mangan

Men and women who toil, either physically or mentally, use up energy. When they overwork they use up more energy, and sometimes the blood gets in a run-down condition. We fight with the blood can not get back to normal, so that it becomes clogged with waste matter from over-exertion.

The clogged blood virtually withers the body. The strained looks on pale faces, the thin, bloodless arms, the sunken cheeks and necks, the dead tired feeling, are the results of stale blood depriving the system of life-giving oxygen.

Workers go to the drug store and get Gude's Pepto-Mangan when they feel weak and run down. They take it in either the liquid or the tablet form. That makes the blood rich and red and drives out the poisons. Life-giving oxygen, carried by the little red cells, renews the strength and builds up the entire system. Look for the name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" on the package. Advertisement.

FIND SPRAY TO CONTROL POTATO HOPPERBURN

Potato growers need not fear outbreaks of tuber or hopperburn of potatoes, such as were experienced the past year, if proper spraying methods are followed, according to the Ohio Experiment station, Wooster.

Until last season tuber burn was supposed to be a scalding of the leaves caused by hot weather, but entomologists found that an insect, a small green leafhopper, which feeds on the undersides of the potato leaves, is the cause of the trouble.

A home-made spray of Bordeaux mixture was used by 33 farmers, who sprayed on schedule and kept yield records covering 200 acres, in connection with extension specialists of the Ohio State university.

It was necessary to use a type of sprayer equipped to spray from both above and below, one nozzle shooting

In one sprayed field a yield of 82 bushels more to the acre was secured over the unsprayed, an increase in yield of 76 per cent.

EARLY MATURING BIRDS YIELD HIGHER RETURNS

Are late-maturing pullets profitable? To answer this question the Ohio Experiment station kept careful records of a flock on the South-eastern test farm at Carpenter Meigs county, to determine the financial returns from early-maturing as compared with late-maturing pullets.

The returns from a flock of 50 early-maturing birds were $5.02 per fowl, while late-maturing pullets averaged only $3.25 per bird. The returns were based on egg prices secured on the Cleveland market.

The late-maturing pullets did not come into production until late in December and in only one month did they surpass the early-maturing lot in percentage of egg production.

This commends the practice of poultry-keepers in selecting early-maturing birds and marking them so as to use them exclusively for breeders.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using the well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap, but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
